

CITI Registration Guidance for Most Human Subjects Researchers

As you go through the CITI registration process, you will arrive at the screen reflected in the screenshot below. The “Role in research” item opens into a small window requesting a selection from the researcher. This selection will determine the training modules that you will have to complete. Common selections for WTAMU researchers are noted with arrows.

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the CITI registration form. The browser's address bar shows 'registration'. The page header includes the CITI logo and 'Collaborative Institutional'. A navigation bar has a 'Home' button. A sidebar on the left contains a vertical stack of images: Saturn, a person's face, a medical scan, a person in a lab mask, an elderly couple, a cityscape, and a microscopic view of cells. The main content area has a heading: 'Please provide the following fields are marked with an asterisk'. Below this is a form with the following fields:
